Senator Zecharish Chandler, of Michigan, than whom a more implacable and victous enemy of the bouth never existed, has gone to his last account. It is not ours to judge him, but it is to be hoped that no man will be found who can fully take his place, for from all human appear ances it looks like he was one of those instruments of vengeance and evil which are sometimes sent to securge a section of country by its venom and malignoty. His life has been devoted to the produc-tion of all the hate and discord which his nature could engender between the two great sections of a common country, and so far as we recall it, has not a single act of kindness or expression of charity to mark an oasis in his career, which has been a barren desert, so far as all of the noble and better qualities of man are concerned. He has gone to meet Morton and Thad. Stevens, and the universal opinion of the better people of the country will be that a worse man could not have been removed from this world of

THE RAID ON W. H. PARKER.

The accurrence which our correspondent from Fair Play gives an account of elsewhere is an outrage which should not go unpunished, and we are glad to know that it is condomned by the whole people of the section in which it occurred, and especially, that no citizens of this State were connected with it. The assault upon Perker in Seorgia was, from all accounts which we have heard, unprovoked and without a shadow of justification; but with that we have nothing to tion; but with that we have nothing to do. It was in another State, and it is for the people of that State to approve or condenn. When, however, the parties so far forget themselves as to come to this State to wreak out vengeance for them-selves, and do so in as indiscriminate and uttorly lawless manner as was done in this case, it becomes a matter of great consequence to our people. We cannot afford to have the reputition and peace of this State tampered with in any such way. One occurrence of this kind does the South and the Democratic party more harm than five years of good behavior on the part of the whole people of this State can make amends for. Such pro-State can make amends for. State of considings must be stopped, if we expect to have permanent peace and good government in the Scuths. We have as a political party promised the colored people to place them upon an equality before the law and to extend its protection to them. Under such promises we cannot permit as to come with force and terror into their houses and mistreat their famllies in the search for one whose life they would take because he had defended himself when attacked. As a political party we are bound to put a stop to such proceedings, but there is a higher reason than this which demands that it shall be stopped. That reason is because it is wrong in itself. We hope this case will be looked into judicially, and that people will be taught that the k. Is must be respected. The great security of the cities reads in the rigid enforcement of law. If we allow it to be trampled under foot to complete the comp in one instance, it will be done in another. If lawlessness is permitted to crep out in one direction, and go unpunished, it will soon also manifest itself in another, and ere long the law-abiding citizen will be at the mercy of those who do not regard the law. Such occurrences as the one in the Fork ore unfortunate and the sooner an example is made to show that they will not, a to rated, the better it will be for the St. c.

THE CHARLESTON CANVASS. The Courtenay wing of the Democratle party of Charleston, which embraces a majority of the actual Democrats of the city, met in convention last week and, appointed is committee to center with the Sale wing of the party, which a view of promoting harmony between the two sections of the party, and securing unity of action among all of the Democrats of Charleston in a common fight against the Republicans for the city g.—ep ment for enother term of two years. The spirit in which this convention want about its husbess seems admirable. It did not the convention want about the party. With us the rule is that no vote in our primary elections shall be counted if cast for any candidate who has not previously pledged to abide the result. Mr. Courtonsy has repeatedly so pledged himself, while Mr. Sale has always promised to abide the result if he was nominated, but has never been able to let his patriotism commit him any further. Under the circumstances we do not see how the Democrats of appointed a committee to confer with the stand upon technicalities, nor arrogate to itself all of the wisdom or patriotism of the city, but in a candid and businessthe way offered to confor with those differing from it upon an equality with the object of mauring harmony, and also proposing, if they could not agree, to have shelf differences to dislaterested Demograms to be from the city, or from the field, as they might be recovered. the State, as they might see proper. Without considering any of the issues that stose before this convention, or who was right or wrong up to that time, when the Courtenay Democrats adopted this course they placed themselves on secure ground, and entitled themselves to the foliant recognition and in the State. Their projection was a plain and tennelasts. In reply allow me to say that the clearly manifested object of the Convention in placing the resolution referred to is to secure the unity of the Democratic party in the city, avoiding all technical questions. I cannot suppose that your committee will fall to appreciate their spirit, and must therefore request that you present them for their action.

As directed, I have submitted copies of these resolutions to the Hon. W. W. Sale and Capt. Wm. A. Courtenay, and will probably receive their replies by this evening. If you determine to confer with us these replies may be then carried out.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, held this evening, after the reading of the communication from Mr. Dingle and a statement from the chairman of the correspondence, on motion of Col. R. D. White, it was resolved, 1st. That the action of the chairman of the Executive Committee of the City Democratic party in replying personally to the communication of Mr. G. W. Dingle, chairman of a committee representing, as they say, a portion of the Democracy of Charleston be, and the same is, hereby confirmed.

That this Executive Committee of the City Democratic party regard the overtures personally made by its chairman as covering the whole ground in controversy, and deeply regretting, as they do, the suggestions therein made by him for the unity of the Democracy, have not been followed up by Mr. Dingle's committee, and no other alternative presenting itself, they decline to hold further informal correspondence.

G. W. Dingle, Eng., Chairman of Committee:

DEAR SIB—Your letter of the 27th October, 1879, came to band enclosing resolutions of a Convention representing, as one of the resolutions states, a portion of the Democracy of Charleston.

The third resolution relates to me. It asks me to "lend my aid to the Democracy in adopting a plan of nomination which will be acceptable to all Democratis and thus ensure unity in the party." It will give me pleasure to aid the regular Executive Committee of the City Democracy elected on the first of October, 1879, in furthering the above object.

we do not see how the Democrats of Charleston can do otherwise than support Mr. Courtenay, for he is the choice of a majority of the Democratic party, and his friends have offered everything that was reasonable to settle the differmees in the party. The Sale Advisor

Board have never agreed to any settlement of the difficulty except an uncond!-

tional surrender to Sale or that which was equivalent to it. The following was their proposition for settlement:

From this it will be seen that neither Mr. Sale nor the Executive Committee of his wing of the party were willing to have any settlement, or to treat with the other wing of the party, unless they were admitted to be the representatives of the Democracy of Charleston, which amounts to nothing more nor less than saying that if they were allowed to have their own way they would confer, but not otherwise. Upon the receipt of these letters nothing was left for the convention to do but to either back down or reminest their man. In this dilemment nominate their man. In this dilemma they nominated Capt. Courtenay, who was really the only candidate for the office who was eligible to the nomina-

From a partial examination it is thought that Mr. Chandler died of sudden congestion of the lungs, brought on by a cold contracted at Jenesville.

November 1, 1879.

The sad intelligence of the death of Zachariah Chandler, late Secretary of the Interior, from the State of Michigan, has been communicated to the Government and to the country, and in proper respect to his memory I hereby order that the several executive departments be closed to public business, and their flags and those of their dependencies throughout the country be displayed at half-mast on the day of his funeral.

Chicago, November 2, -The coroner's jury held an inquest upon the body of the Hon. Zacharlah Chandler at the Grand Pacific Hotel last night, and found that his death took place between midnight and 7 a. m., and was probably the result of cerebral hemorrhage. The relatives and friends of the deceased objected to a thorough post-mortem examination.

Later, -The last sad offices for Senator Chandler were performed at an early hour this morning at the Grand Pacific Hotel. Rev. David Swing officiated, and the services were necessarily very brief, consisting simply of prayer and reading from the scriptures. The romains were then excorted to the depot by three companies of the First Regiment, 200 veters as and a detail of cadets, together with a large number of friends. State, and threatens to take away from us all that we have gained in good government, by splitting the party and encouraging independentism, the most dangerous enemy of our State. Since that unfortunate canvass the Democrats of Charleston have three times voted togother, and three times have they beaten the common enemy. In one of these canvasses Mr. Sale was nominated for Mayor, and all voted for him. Now it would be unfortunate to re-open that old scar of the Democracy. If one wing of the party submitted to Mr. Sale's nomi-

We killed the fatted calf, and invited them to the feast, and they grandly informed us that they had always owned that calf and were not thankful for it. By the laws of v ir sid of nations they were in right bound to pay all expenses of the war and of the nation. They were in all justice bound to pay the cost of the rebellion, but we forgave them with a magnanimity unknown to the nations of the earth. We made a mistake, but the greatest mistake we ever made was in not hanging enough of those rebels to make treason forever odious. [Great applates.] I go back to the Senate and feel that I have had a Rip Van Winkle sleep. The same conditions that existed twenty years ago are there now. Then they said: This proposition is that each party have a separate box and allow all to vote at it that they see proper, and after the balloting is over, that they be at liberty to take further steps for conciliation.

Under this arrangement Mr. Sale's friends could allow Republicans and all to vote, while Mr. Courtenay's, having ontended that none out Democrate have years ago are there now. Then they said!

Do as we want you to do or we will shoot your government to death.

Now the same persons say:
Fall to obey our demands and we will starve your government to death.

These are the men who surrendered at Appendatox, yet who now hold a majority in both he uses of the government. Thirty-six Rep. seentatives from Southern States hold seats in Congress to-day without a shadow of right. They are there in violation of law. This state of things ought not to be. It must not be. It shall not be. [Great applause.]—Twelve Sonators occupy their seats by fraud and violence, by shot-guns and tissue ballots, yet, by a majority thus obtained, they propose to rule this government precisely as they did twenty years ago. The Democratic party occupies presely the same position it did in 1857 and 1850. Then they were crowding the same thing, and Maine, Ohio and all the States show the inevitable result. the right to participate in the nomination of Democratic candidates, could not allow Republicans to vote, and then the trouble would have been as great or greater than ever. It amounted to no offer cfsettlement, and every impartial man in the State will see it in this light. ities because we believe it is a canvass which foreshadows the conflict that lies before us in 1830 in South Carolina, and, therefore, that the whole State is deeply racy without combinations with Republicans. If the Democratic party of Charleston is defeated by disaffected Democrats, or by combinations with Re-

THE ABBEVILLE FAIR.—A correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier, writing about the Abbeville County Fair under date of October 30, says: The exhibition itself, while an excellent one in the matter of quality, so far as it went, lacked the quantity and diversity which only proceeds from general and hearty interest. For some reason the people of the county do not seem to have extended the encouragement which the enterprise certainly deserves. On the first day the attendance was decidedly slim, but yesterday showed a vast improvement in that respect, and a very large crowd was present. This was doubtless attributable in a large measure to the expected presence of Senator Hampton, who, however, did not appear, having missed one of his connections. Everybody was disappointed, and some of those who had come twenty or thirty miles to see him were evidently "mad as tucker," patticularly those who had, with rare forgsight, scrambling and pushing, secured front seats close to where the speaking was expected to be, and held them during long hours. Senator Hampton promises to be here to-day, and there will doubtless be another large crowd. We are also expecting a three hours' go as you please walking match, open to colored contestants only. There have been eight entries thus far. publicans, it will be ominous for the State next year. Hence, we think yet that a settlement of these troubles should be reached by submitting the matter to leading Democrats from different sec-tions of the State for djustment, not in the interests of the candidates, but for the welfare of the party and of the State. If it is not done, those who refuse the arbitration will be justly chargeable with In our opinion the Democrats of Charleston are now suffering for improper action in the past. It is the coalition of a part of the party with Cunningham some years ago which is now the root from which this bitterness springs. In that canvass they united with the Republicans to elect a Northern Republican bird of passage Mayor over Gen. John A. Wagener, a native Carolina Democrat and gentleman. This was, in our opinion, as we then said, wrong and impelitic. It was, however, at a time when the condition of the State was different from what it is now. The damage to be wrought by that mistake only affected

FATAL SHOOTING.—On Wednesday last as John Lipsey and John Mize were going home from Jonesville, in a wagon, some coffee was spilled in the bottom of the vehicle and both commenced gathering it up, when an angry dispute arose between them. Mize jumped from the wagon and ran some distance, followed by Lipsey. Finding he would be overtaken, Mize turned and told Lipsey not to come too near him or he would shoot him. Lipsey pald no attention to the warning, but continued to advance, cursing and threatening Mize, when the latter shot him, the ball entering the left side of the abdomen. Lipsey died on Friday evening and was buried on Sunday. Mize was arrested and is now in jall. We understand that both mon were under the influence of liquor at the time.

To the Bondsmen of Furman University. University.

On the 20th of May last a Circular was issued announcing the necessity of reorganizing the University, foreshadowing some changes, and requesting bondsmen to release us from the obligation to furnish further free tuition, upon specified conditions. Responses to this Circular, though favorable in nearly every case, have not been sufficiently numerous to warrant the Trustess in assuming the responsibility of discontinuing the free system. It is our purpose, therefore, to continue the plan proposed when the bonds were signed.

It will occur to bondsmen, at once, that we cannot possibly go on without their substantial support; and that necessity is now upon us to urge most earnestly the payment of their bonds. We hope that no stronger influence than that of appeal to your love of the Institution will be necessary to prompt you to make as large payments an excuse for doing less, except absolute necessity. We feel bound to accept nothing as an excuse for doing less, except absolute necessity. We have no word to inflame your hearts, if the repeated appeals we have made do not move you; and when we shall have exhansted all the means in our power, the responsibility will rest with you.

G. G. Wells, Secretary.

P. S.—The University opened the 15th of September, with free fuition; and with provision, also free, for tutorial instruction to such as may not be fully prepared for the Collegiate Course. The expense of this latter arrangement is to be borne by the Professors, without any charge against the endowment fund.

MESSAR MURRAY & MURRAY are our only authorized areasts.

Professors, without any charge against the endowment fund.

Messes. Murray & Murray are our only authorized agents for Anderson County, through whom payments should be made. It will save much trouble and expense if bordsmen will call on them, without delay, and state what they are able and willing to do. The Treasurer will take pleasure in furnishing any who may desire it, a full statement of all previous payments.

C. H. JUDSON, Treasurer.

2 ANDREW PREVOST.

Have Opened in the Second Door of the New McCully Building their Stock of FANCY GROCERIES AND CONFECTIONERIES, SUGAR, Coffee, Rice, Pearl Grits, Spices, all kinds. A full and complete line of Canned Goods, every description, among which we call special attention to Codfish Balls, which meet with ready sale, and give perfect satisfaction. We also have the Codfish in five lb. boxes.

We recommend to invalids, and mothers with sickly children, our "Imperial Scotch Oat Meal." We have various other articles in the line of Canned Goods, Confectioneries, &c., too tedious to itemize. Call and see for yourself. Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, and Cigars a specialty. Oranges, Lemons and Enanass. Fresh Oysters during the season. All of which we offer at bottom prices for the CASH.

ATTENTION, STOVE BUYERS!

HAVE just received a new lot of STOVES, which every one should examine before purchasing. The NEW EREGULATOE is the latest invention in the Stove line, and is a model of convenience. It has a revolving centre, that obviates the trouble of lifting vessels from one hole to anoth—a double automatic shelf, a very convenient arrangement for cleaning out ashes, and in every respect agreater improvement on anything in the Stove line ever offered in this market.

My stock of THEWARE is complete, and will be sold at New York prices.

THE ECOFING.—I have put on over 150,000 square feet of Tin Roofing this Summer, and for the efficiency of the work I refer to those for whom it was done, among them the Presbyterian Building Committee, Mr. Stephen McCully and A. H. Osborne. THE STEAM COOKER

Continues to receive the praise of every one who uses it. The following certificates are only two of a large number received, all of which attest its superior alvantages:

To Whom It May Concern—I fully endorse the Steam Cooker, and would not be without it for four times its cost.

Every lady in the land should have the Great Steam Cooker. Money could not induce me to be without it.

MRS. J. R. ARMSTRONG. Those is lebted to me for Stoves will please call and settle their Accounts at once, as they are now due. I need the money and must have it.

L. H. SELL, West End Waverly House.

DON'T YOU FORGET !T!

PARIS STORE

TRIUMPHANTI

THERE IS MORE PROGRESS in the Art of Photography than any other science known. It has been discovered that a gallery painted in Orange Pea-Green Color makes better pictures in half the time of exposure than with the old orthodox blue tint. GOODS LOWER THAN EVER!

> Large and increased Sales have enabled me to mark Profits down still Lower, and caused me to order my Second Fall and Winter Stock, which is now on the road.

I WILL SELL GOODS

WITH SMALL PROFITS ONLY!

But I do not propose to keep Goods for the accommodation of the Trading Public, as some houses CLAIM TO DO.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS.

A great many Cloaks, and have a large number left that are pronounced "besatiful and very cheap." Also, some nice snawls very low down.

A. B. TOWERS & CO.
Oct 23, 1879 And every man, woman and skild should know that

> SELLING GOODS FOR ACCOMMODATION Is too thin and played out!

WHAT I MEAN is to sell in large quantities, and be satisfled with a very small margin.
